Minimum Wage Information

Minimum wage is the lowest hourly, daily or monthly wage that businesses may legally pay to employees or workers. The New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions enforces the state and federal minimum wage. Certain cities enforce their own minimum wage. For more information, contact your local city government for posters and requirements.

Most New Mexico businesses will see the state minimum wage increase and will be required to pay a minimum wage of:

$6.50 per hour effective January 1, 2008

$7.50 per hour effective January 1, 2009

Federal minimum wage increases:

$5.85 per hour effective July 24, 2007

$6.55 per hour effective July 24, 2008

$7.25 per hour effective July 24, 2009

Minimum Wage Act Posting

Businesses are required by state and federal law to post at their workplaces certain information concerning the rights of employees. The required posters, including federal posters, are available free of charge from New Mexico state agencies

*Attention Employers: The Minimum Wage Act summaries serve as a new posting option for your workplace. You may post the one page summary or you may keep the full version of the Minimum Wage Act posted if you do not wish to replace it. Either one of these postings will suffice to meet your requirement.
